

- 1) Box set with both posts at the elbow.
- 2) 1 dribbles to a wing and 5 sets a down screen for 2 at the block.

- 1) Now 4 will set a ball screen at the top of the key.
- 2) 3 will set a cross screen in the post.
- 3) Coaching Point: If the defense switches the screen in the post, this should create a mismatch that is the offense's favor.

- 1) Now with 2 on the wing looking to feed the post, 3 will get a double screen from 4 and 1 on the opposite wing.
- 2) Coaching Point: Putting your best scorer or shooter in the 3 spot creates a lot of space in the post and for slips off of the screen.
