

#06 RECE CALDWELL: 1-4 DOUBLE BALLSCREEN

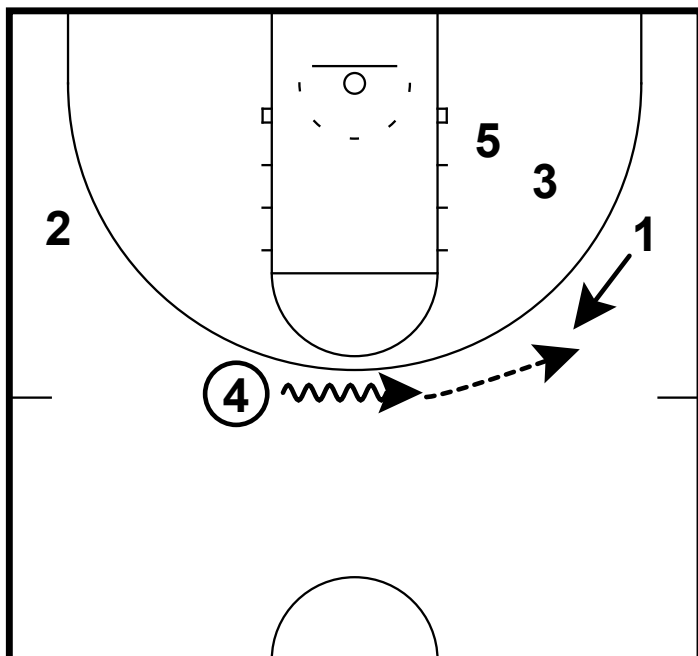

- 1) Caldwell is a crafty point guard in the mold of NBA great Mark Jackson. Her size and skill allow her to make an array of plays.
- 2) In this 1-4 high set, the Caldwell will deliver the ball to the wing and then receive a "UCLA" screen from the ballside post.
- 3) This play is adapted from the Brooklyn Nets, which they ran for Derron Williams.

#06 RECE CALDWELL: 1-4 DOUBLE BALLSCREEN

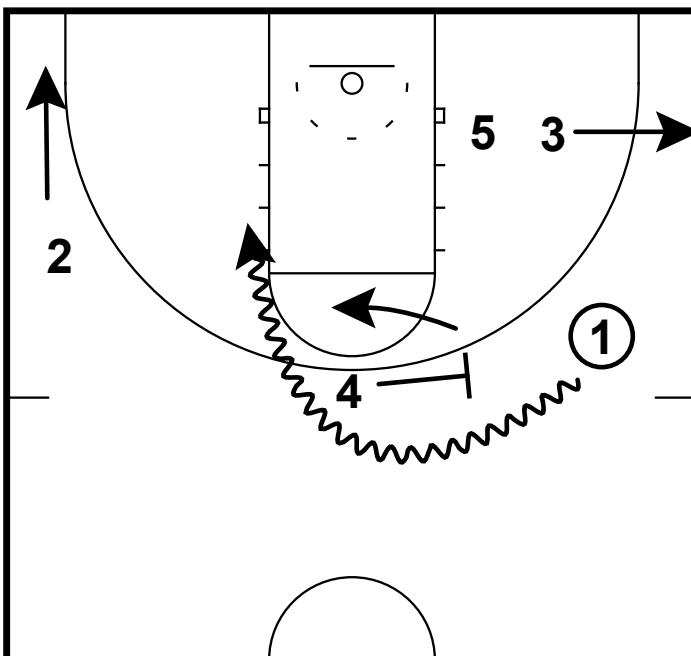

- 1) Caldwell is a big enough point guard to be able to score on the block off of this UCLA screen.
- 2) However if the feed is not open, the ball will be reversed back to the 4 player popping out on the screen.
- 3) Caldwell will then receive a double stagger screen from the opposite post and wing on the other side of the court.

#06 RECE CALDWELL: 1-4 DOUBLE BALLSCREEN

- 1) Caldwell is skilled enough to shoot the ball off of this double screen. Delivering the ball on time and on target should get her a good look at the arc.

#06 RECE CALDWELL: 1-4 DOUBLE BALLSCREEN

- 1) If Caldwell doesn't get the 3, 4 will follow the pass with a ball screen.
- 2) This allows Caldwell to get downhill and create off the dribble.
- 3) 2 will spot up in the corner. and 4 will pop rather than roll.
