

BOB: HANDOFF FLARE (BLAZERS)

- 1) Late in the game the Portland Trail Blazers had the ball under their bucket trying to get a quick bucket vs. the Philadelphia 76ers.
- 2) In this frame, they stacked their wing and post on the side of the ball and ran the wing off of Brooke Lopez - curling back to the rim.

BOB: HANDOFF FLARE (BLAZERS)

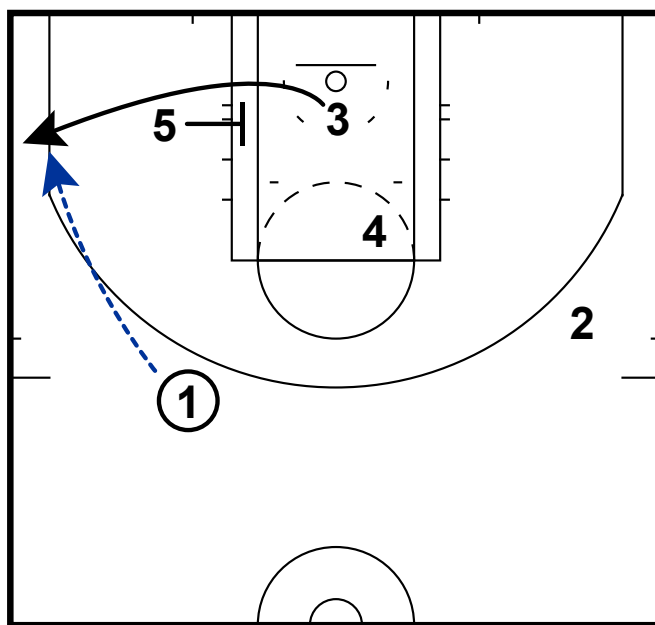

- 1) Their point guard put the ball into Lopez hands right after he set the screen.
- 2) This effective since both defenders will be paying attention to the curl action leaving the post player open to get the pass.

BOB: HANDOFF FLARE (BLAZERS)

- 1) Once Lopez had the ball he immediately handed the ball back to Damian Lillard in a dribble handoff situation.
- 2) Here Lillard gets a look at his first option, which is to throw the ball to his shooter who will receive a flare screen from LaMarcus Aldridge.

BOB: HANDOFF FLARE (BLAZERS)

- 1) They were unable to get the ball to their shooter off the flare screen so they then looked at their second option.
- 2) Here the wing who had curled under the rim now receives a pin-in screen from Lopez.
