

- 1) Here is a horns look that 76ers used the other night.
- 2) Here Michael Carter Williams hits the high post with a pass.

- 1) With the ball in the High Post, Williams cuts to the corner. This would be an option in the future to give a quick handoff if the defense begins to sleep.
- 2) The ballside wing cuts to the other corner, while the other post sets a down screen for the

- 1) The ball will now be reversed to the opposite wing.
- 2) Also 5 will replace himself back at the elbow area.

- 1) With the ball on the wing, 2 will immediately look to get the UCLA screen on the weakside.
- 2) The scoring options here are from the quick cut to the rim or the 2nd cut from the post player.
