

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS: CHIECK DIALLO BLAST BALLSCREEN

- 1) Chieck Diallo is a potential Top 10 player in the class of 2015.
- 2) His specialty lays with his athleticism. He is a rim protector and a threat to put up double-double numbers nightly.
- 3) Here we look at a 3 out set where Diallo is playing the 4 spot. The action starts with a wing pass & then a corner cut.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS: CHIECK DIALLO BLAST BALLSCREEN

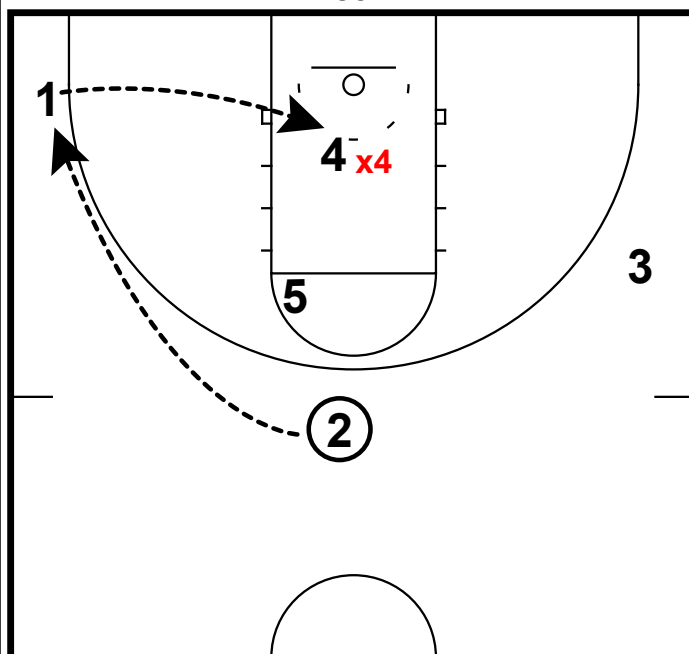

- 1) Here Diallo would run to set a ball screen on the opposite side. His ability to be mobile and move defenders across the court makes him a threat.
- 2) However the defense may have this action scouted and will know that the offense is running this action to get Diallo on the roll.
- 3) Therefore we see x4 locking into Diallo or "jamming" him to prevent the roll. x2 will play the ball screen either over the top or underneath - depending on 2's strength.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS: CHIECK DIALLO BLAST BALLSCREEN

- 1) To make the adjustment, 5 will come set the back screen on x4.
- 2) This frees up Diallo to sky over the defense and catch a hi-light reel type alley oop.
- 3) He is athletic enough to be able to jump over x5 even he tries to hang back and help.

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS: CHIECK DIALLO BLAST BALLSCREEN

- 1) The counter to this would be if x4 is able to fight through the screen and jump ball side.
- 2) There is still a chance to get the ball to Diallo at the mouth of the basket. The ball can be skipped 1 in the corner & feed him for an easy dunk.
- 3) Diallo actually does a very good job of creating position on the block.
