

- 1) The Rockets runs this action in transition off of a defensive rebound.
- 2) James Harden grabbed the rebound and brought the ball up the right hand side & reversed it to the trailing 4 player.
- 3) Here the 3 player makes a back cut, which will draw the attention of the helpside defense on the other side.

- 1) With the 4 player with the ball at the top of the key, the other post player goes and sets a screen for the wing in the corner.
- 2) Immediately, the wing goes & sets the screen for Harden near the top of the key.
- 3) This is a hard action to guard, because the Rockets have screened for the screener which eliminates the help.

- 1) Harden of course is one of the best 3pt shooters in the NBA. He knocks down the shot here.
