

HALF-COURT: YALE MOTION

This is some good motion action from the Yale men's team. Keep in mind that all 5 of their players on the floor can play away from the basket. They ran this to get their 4 man an open look at the rim. 1 dribbles at the 2 man who guard loops up top.

HALF-COURT: YALE MOTION

1 will pass to the 2 man. 1 then goes and screens for the 5 man who cuts up high.

HALF-COURT: YALE MOTION

2 then will dribble at the 3 man. The 3 will go screen for the 4. Notice the angle at which the 3 sets the screen. This will get 4 an open shot from 15-18ft.

HALF-COURT: YALE MOTION

2 will pass to the 4 who should have an open look. After 3 screens he will cut to the right corner. 1 fills the right wing and the 2 man will go screen away for the 5. The 5 man can look to curl off this screen.
