

2015 HS ELITE 100: #2 DIAMOND STONE

Diamond Stone is the top post player in the country in the class of 2015 according to BrandonClayScouting.com. Here is a 1-4 high look that could get Stone an easy look in the half court.

Stone does a terrific job of sealing and using his body to create angles to score. In the first frame we see Stone sealing for a quick feed at the elbow.

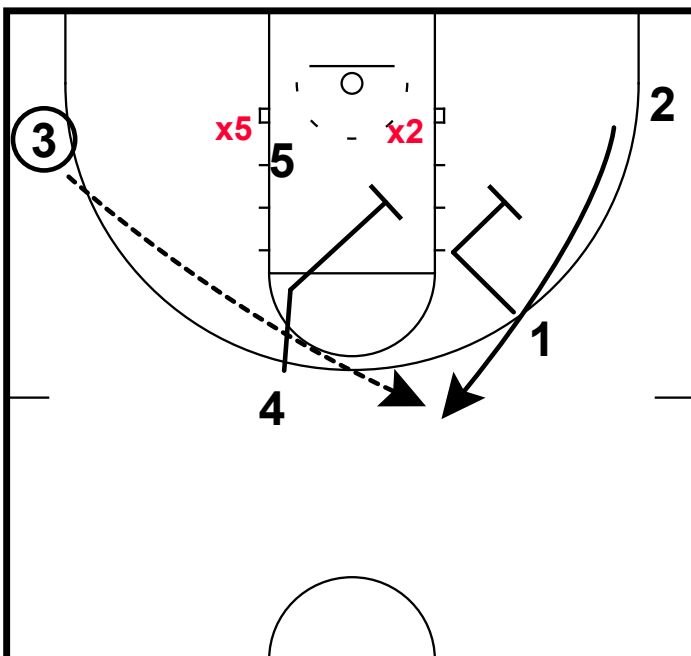

In this frame we see the hi-lo option when the defense decides to take away the direct feed.

Often the defense will use a second defender to take away a post feed. This is great opportunity for a shooter to pop open on the reversal pass.
