NBA: GRIZZLIES PG DOUBLE

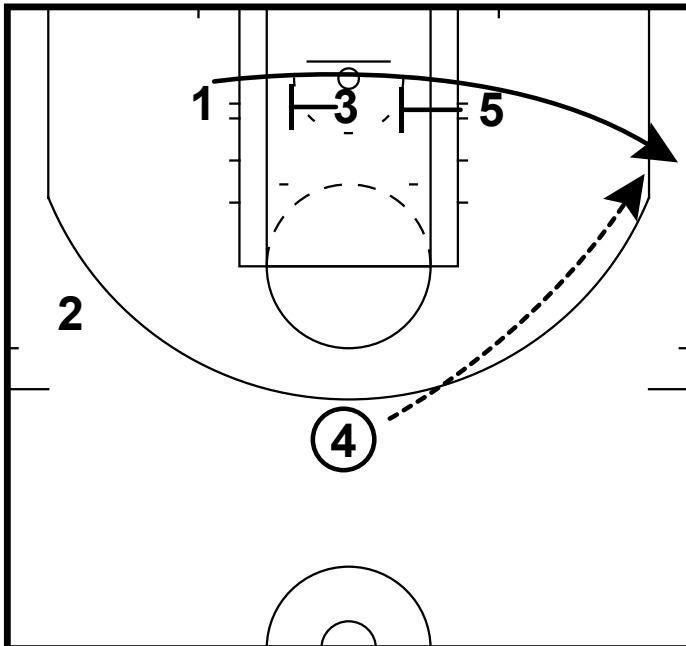

The Grizzlies have one of the better PG's in the league with Mike Conley. Here is a look they ran this weekend vs. the Heat.

Conley ends up on the opposite block and the wing makes a wing cut. The 4-man has the ball centered in the middle of the court.

Conley now comes off of a double screen along the baseline. Marc Gasol sets the last screen.

With Conley having the ball on the wing, this sets up a possible 2-man game with him & Gasol on the block. What Conley did in this game was penetrate to the elbow and kick out to Jeff Green for a 3pt.
